

REDS TO MOVE U-2 PILOT TO LABOR CAMP

Norton, Va., Oct. 26 (UPI)—

Oliver Powers, father of Pilot Francis Gary Powers, whose U-2 reconnaissance plane crashed in Russian territory last year, said yesterday his son wrote that he would be moving to a labor camp in "15 to 20 days."

The air force pilot was sentenced to 10 years imprisonment, part of which was to have been spent in a Moscow prison and the remainder in a Russian labor camp. "It just takes time to get the papers processed," he said.

Powers said he plans to visit his son next May. He and the pilot's mother attended the Moscow trial where Powers was convicted.
